OFFICE OF THE UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Visit to San José de Apartadó

March 1, 2005

The Deputy Director of the Office in Colombia of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Mr. Amerigo Incalcaterra, will visit the Peace Community of San José de Apartadó tomorrow, March 2nd.

Mr. Incalcaterra will travel with representatives of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, UNHCR, and will listen to what members of the community and the civil and military authorities have to say.

The Office will express its solidarity and support for the peace community following the massacre in which eight of its members, including four children, were murdered.
